

Special Program

Topics: Myth of Disease
 What is cancer?
 What is a rational approach to cancer

Special Guest: Thomas Lodi, MD, MD (H), FICT, DAARFM, CNS

Bio: Dr. Thomas Lodi has always been something of a brilliant enigma within the oncology community. His take on integrative, alternative and nutritional solutions to treating cancer has been viewed as radical. The rather direct stance he takes regarding empowering his patients to understand their body's ability to heal using his program leaves some, if not many, estranged.

Despite all of this, his cancer treatments have revolutionized the integrative side of the oncology industry worldwide and led many patients with cancer to the root of real healing and health restoration.

Sixteen years ago, Dr. Lodi founded his practice at An Oasis of Healing in Mesa, Arizona. At the time, few if any, other centers provided a true mix of conventional and alternative medicine to help patients actually heal from their cancer.

Add to the mix an organic whole foods diet, whole body cleansing, and spiritual healing, Dr. Thomas Lodi pioneered an integrative cancer treatment approach which has now become the definitive route for those unsatisfied with the modern cancer treatment system.

Dr. Lodi lives and practices in Thailand.
